Celebrating 11 Years of Service

The Advancing Dawn

March 2nd, 2008
Joyful Sunday of Lent

Dear friends of Sanctuary of Hope

When we began dreaming about having a sanctuary for people of the inner city of Kansas City, KS, we started as a prayer group. You might say that SOH was born out of prayer. Even the word, "hope," came to us from our prayer. So naturally when we were deciding about our future plans, we went to prayer.

On January 29th, 2008, we called the entire community of Sanctuary of Hope together to wait upon the Lord. Before doing more planning, we sat with each other in our chapel and waited for God to speak about Sanctuary of Hope and its future. Many attended, even with the ice and snow on the ground.

Two Scriptures (now quoted on our website), Joel 2:15-16 and Psalms 33:13-15, 20-22, were read during the prayer time; then for 15 minutes we sat in stillness and waited upon God. After the quiet time, people just shared openly what they heard God saying to each one of us. These prayers were very uplifting and gave me the definite sense that God wanted us to stay at Sanctuary of Hope and to go forward, welcoming everyone who comes with love and care. In these voiced prayers, we heard that many have added something to our mission over these 11 years of operation and continue to do so.

After the song, "Day is Done," we were visiting with each other. A friend read to me Haggai 2: 3-9 (also quoted on our web site) which was a prophecy from God! My heart really jumped with JOY when this was shared. I said I didn't realize this was in Haggai. Then, when I shared something I had experienced during the silent prayer portion of the meeting, I was told that made it a confirmation from God.

While sitting in silence with the community, I saw a gold door, with a pattern upon it. It was in the shadow with a light around it. Then, when I read in Haggai, "mine is the gold," this image came back to me. Wow, God is the true Resource of Sanctuary of Hope! It is our mission to help everyone find this God in their own way.

God is asking us to simply trust, and God will restore this "building," this site, to a glory beyond our wildest dreams and imaginings. From Haggai: "Take courage...for I am with you, says the Lord of Hosts...do not fear!" Praise God!

Yes, I am still concerned about our finances, our need for new members in our small faith community, our growing costs; but in God we will trust.

Perhaps if everyone who reads this reflection would ask God what they might do to help us in our mission of prayer and retreat; then the finances we need and the people who have time to give to this ministry would come, and the costs would level out eventually. Would you consider giving a dollar or two for each of the 10+ years we have been here and for ten more years into our future? Would you consider giving some more time to the mission, by being a volunteer, giving of in-kind donations of labor, supplies, etc, giving a year to live here and be of hospitality to our guests, praying for our success? "May your kindness, Lord, be upon us, for we have put our trust in you." Psalm 33:22

In addition to all this, don't forget we are now a listed charity on a search engine called, www.goodsearch.com When you enter Sanctuary of Hope and search for some item, then we get a penny for every search. An easy way to access GoodSearch is to go to SOH's web site and there is a link to GoodSearch. If you end up buying something from www.GoodShop.com, we get a percentage, from 5% to up to 37%, for every purchase. Wow!

THE FEAST OF HOPE

By Pastor Sonja Griffith

“I have eagerly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer” (Luke 22:15 NRSV), Jesus said to his disciples as they prepared for His last supper on earth. That meal, the holiest of Jewish meals celebrating the freedom toward which God had led the people, was indeed a feast of hope. The hope was that this meal and its fellowship and its symbolism would forever mark the disciples with the very imprint of Christ. As they would have their feet washed, partake of the meal, and share in the bread and cups of wine offered by Christ, the hope was that they would carry with them the models of freedom, service, fellowship, love, and grace-filled sacrifice that they had seen and experienced. The hope was that they would remember and pass on that remembrance for all time to come, so that the freedom and the model and the imprint would be made on each of the children of God in their living and then shared in the resurrection of living eternally.

Just so, we at Sanctuary of Hope are eagerly desiring to eat a Feast of Hope with each of you on March 13, 2008! Pastor Sonja Griffith, of the First Central Church of the Brethren, has been asked to share her tradition of Love Feast, which recreates that Last Supper in the Upper Room with all who would like to join in an ecumenical celebration which will begin at 7:00 p.m. and end at 8:30 p.m. The Feast will begin upstairs in the chapel for a time of soul-searching with honesty and grace. Then, participants will move to the dining room for a practice of humble service in hand washing as participants feel able, accompanied by hymns of reflection. A simple meal with sweet and solemn fellowship will follow, and the evening will end with a remembrance of Christ in bread and the wine. We trust that, in this Love Feast of Hope, this prelude to Holy Week, we will each remember our Lord with deep joy, and in freedom, we will be imprinted with the heart of Christ as we look to now and to eternity! Come, for all things will be ready, and Christ holds out his arms!

Please call the office 913-321-4673 if you are coming so we will know how many to prepare for.

Take a Vacation with God

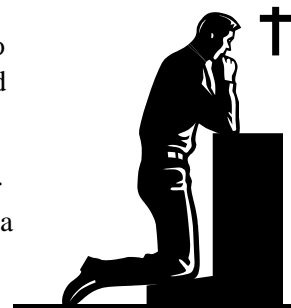

by Sister Antonella Bayer, CSJ

Now is your chance to get off the busy super-highway and take time to refresh your body, mind and spirit! Enjoy a special time tailored to your specific needs. Directed Retreats will be available June 1-13.

The retreatant meets daily with a retreat director, who listens to what is happening in the retreatant's life and prayer, and suggests ways to connect with the divine. Most people on directed retreats maintain silence and minimal interaction during their retreat except in their meetings with the retreat director. The focus of such a retreat (your choice of two to six days) is on you and your relationship to God. A priest, a Lutheran minister, and two nuns will be available as directors. Call Sanctuary of Hope now to book your place: 913-321-4673 ask for Sr. Antonella

A Day of Inspiration...

By Kathy Jennings

J- is for Joyful! J- is for Jubilant! J- is for Judgment! J-is for Jesus!! The sweet sextet of angelic voices from Guardian Angels were joyful! The vibrant voices of Our Lady St. Rose were jubilant! The exuberant rousing rhythms of Sounds of Glory were jammin'!! Although Lent is time to lament and repent, on this day we chose to celebrate. On Sunday, February 10th, the tiny chapel was filled to capacity as we made a joyful noise to the Lord! Some got out of their seats or tapped their feet; sit, stand, clapped their hands, nod their heads, sway or rock, the Holy Spirit made this place HOT!! Some sang along, some hummed, some shout; to proclaim the Name of Jesus is what it was all about!

Fr. Anthony, from Kenya sang "Mama Maria" in Swahili as he played the traditional instrument called the kayamba. PLEASE contact him at frkiplagat@yahoo.com

To the tune of Sinatra's "Pennies from Heaven" Fr. D explained how SOH can gain a penny a search for each hit, or a percentage of each purchase, just point and click!

For Afternoon High Tea Sue Ryan and crew prepared a plethora of dainty delicacies and epicurean delights to suit all appetites! Sue also meticulously made edible chocolate crosses as a small token of appreciation for those who attended our 12th Annual Meditation in Music and Movement celebration!

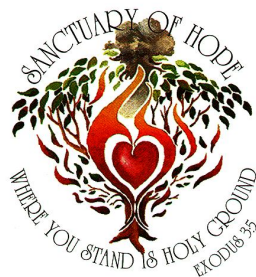

When the daily cross you have to lift becomes too heavy, too difficult to bear, read the Hang it on the Cross prayer, when life becomes bitter, your soul brittle, on this sweet chocolate cross you can nibble.

Mille mille grazie to Gary Schumann without his expertise in technical support it would not have been possible. bringing everything into fruition. Gary Provided the candy molds for the chocolate crosses, the prayer cards, and spent many hours bagging and tagging. Thank you Gary.

Next year, always the second Sunday in February, the 8th, we hope you will be here to celebrate the 13th Annual Meditation in Music and Movement Concert.
